

There are several computer labs on campus including:

EDENS LIBRARY: OVERTON MULTI-MEDIA CENTER

This lab is located on the lower level and equipped with 20 iMacs and 14 Multi Media Dell PC's stationed in the Media Center, as well as friendly tech-help at the Help Desk. Lab hours are the same as Library.

EDENS LIBRARY: COLLABORATIVE TECHNOLOGIES LAB

Room 121 (lower level). This lab is equipped with 8 stations that each have five chairs, a 37 inch screen, PC and a switch that allows users to connect a laptop to the screen. This room is ideal for group work and group projects, and the room is also equipped with a SMARTBoard for instruction.

BUSH SCIENCE CENTER COMPUTER LAB

Room 121. Equipped with 24 PC's, and 1 instructor PC. This lab is sometimes reserved as a teaching classroom, otherwise it is open 24/7 for student use.

BREED LEADERSHIP CENTER COMPUTER LAB

Room 304. This lab is equipped with 24 PC's, and Instructor workstation. This lab is sometimes reserved as a teaching classroom, otherwise it is open for student use.

NOTE: Students are required to be considerate to others and treat the equipment with respect. Inappropriate behavior or abuse of the lab may result in loss of lab privileges, disciplinary action and/or charges for damage.
